

- Canada services Canada and also exports to the U.S., but does not export to anywhere else.
- All of the U.S. warehouses are set up to export to anywhere in the world, but most exports ship from Miami and are destined for Latin America.
- The Monterrey, Mexico office services the regional sales and distribution needs of northeastern Mexico.
- The Naucalpan de Juárez warehouse outside Mexico City was set up specifically for one customer, Dell, and services Mexico only.
- The operations center located in San José, Costa Rica, is predominantly a sales office servicing U.S. customers. Other teams here are Cisco, software licensing, SKU (stock keeping unit) set-up and Latin America Sales. Orders placed here could be shipped from any of the U.S. warehouses.
- The São Paulo, Brazil warehouse services all of South America.

- Tech Data location
- Warehouse

Note: This map is not drawn to scale and is not recommended for navigational purposes.

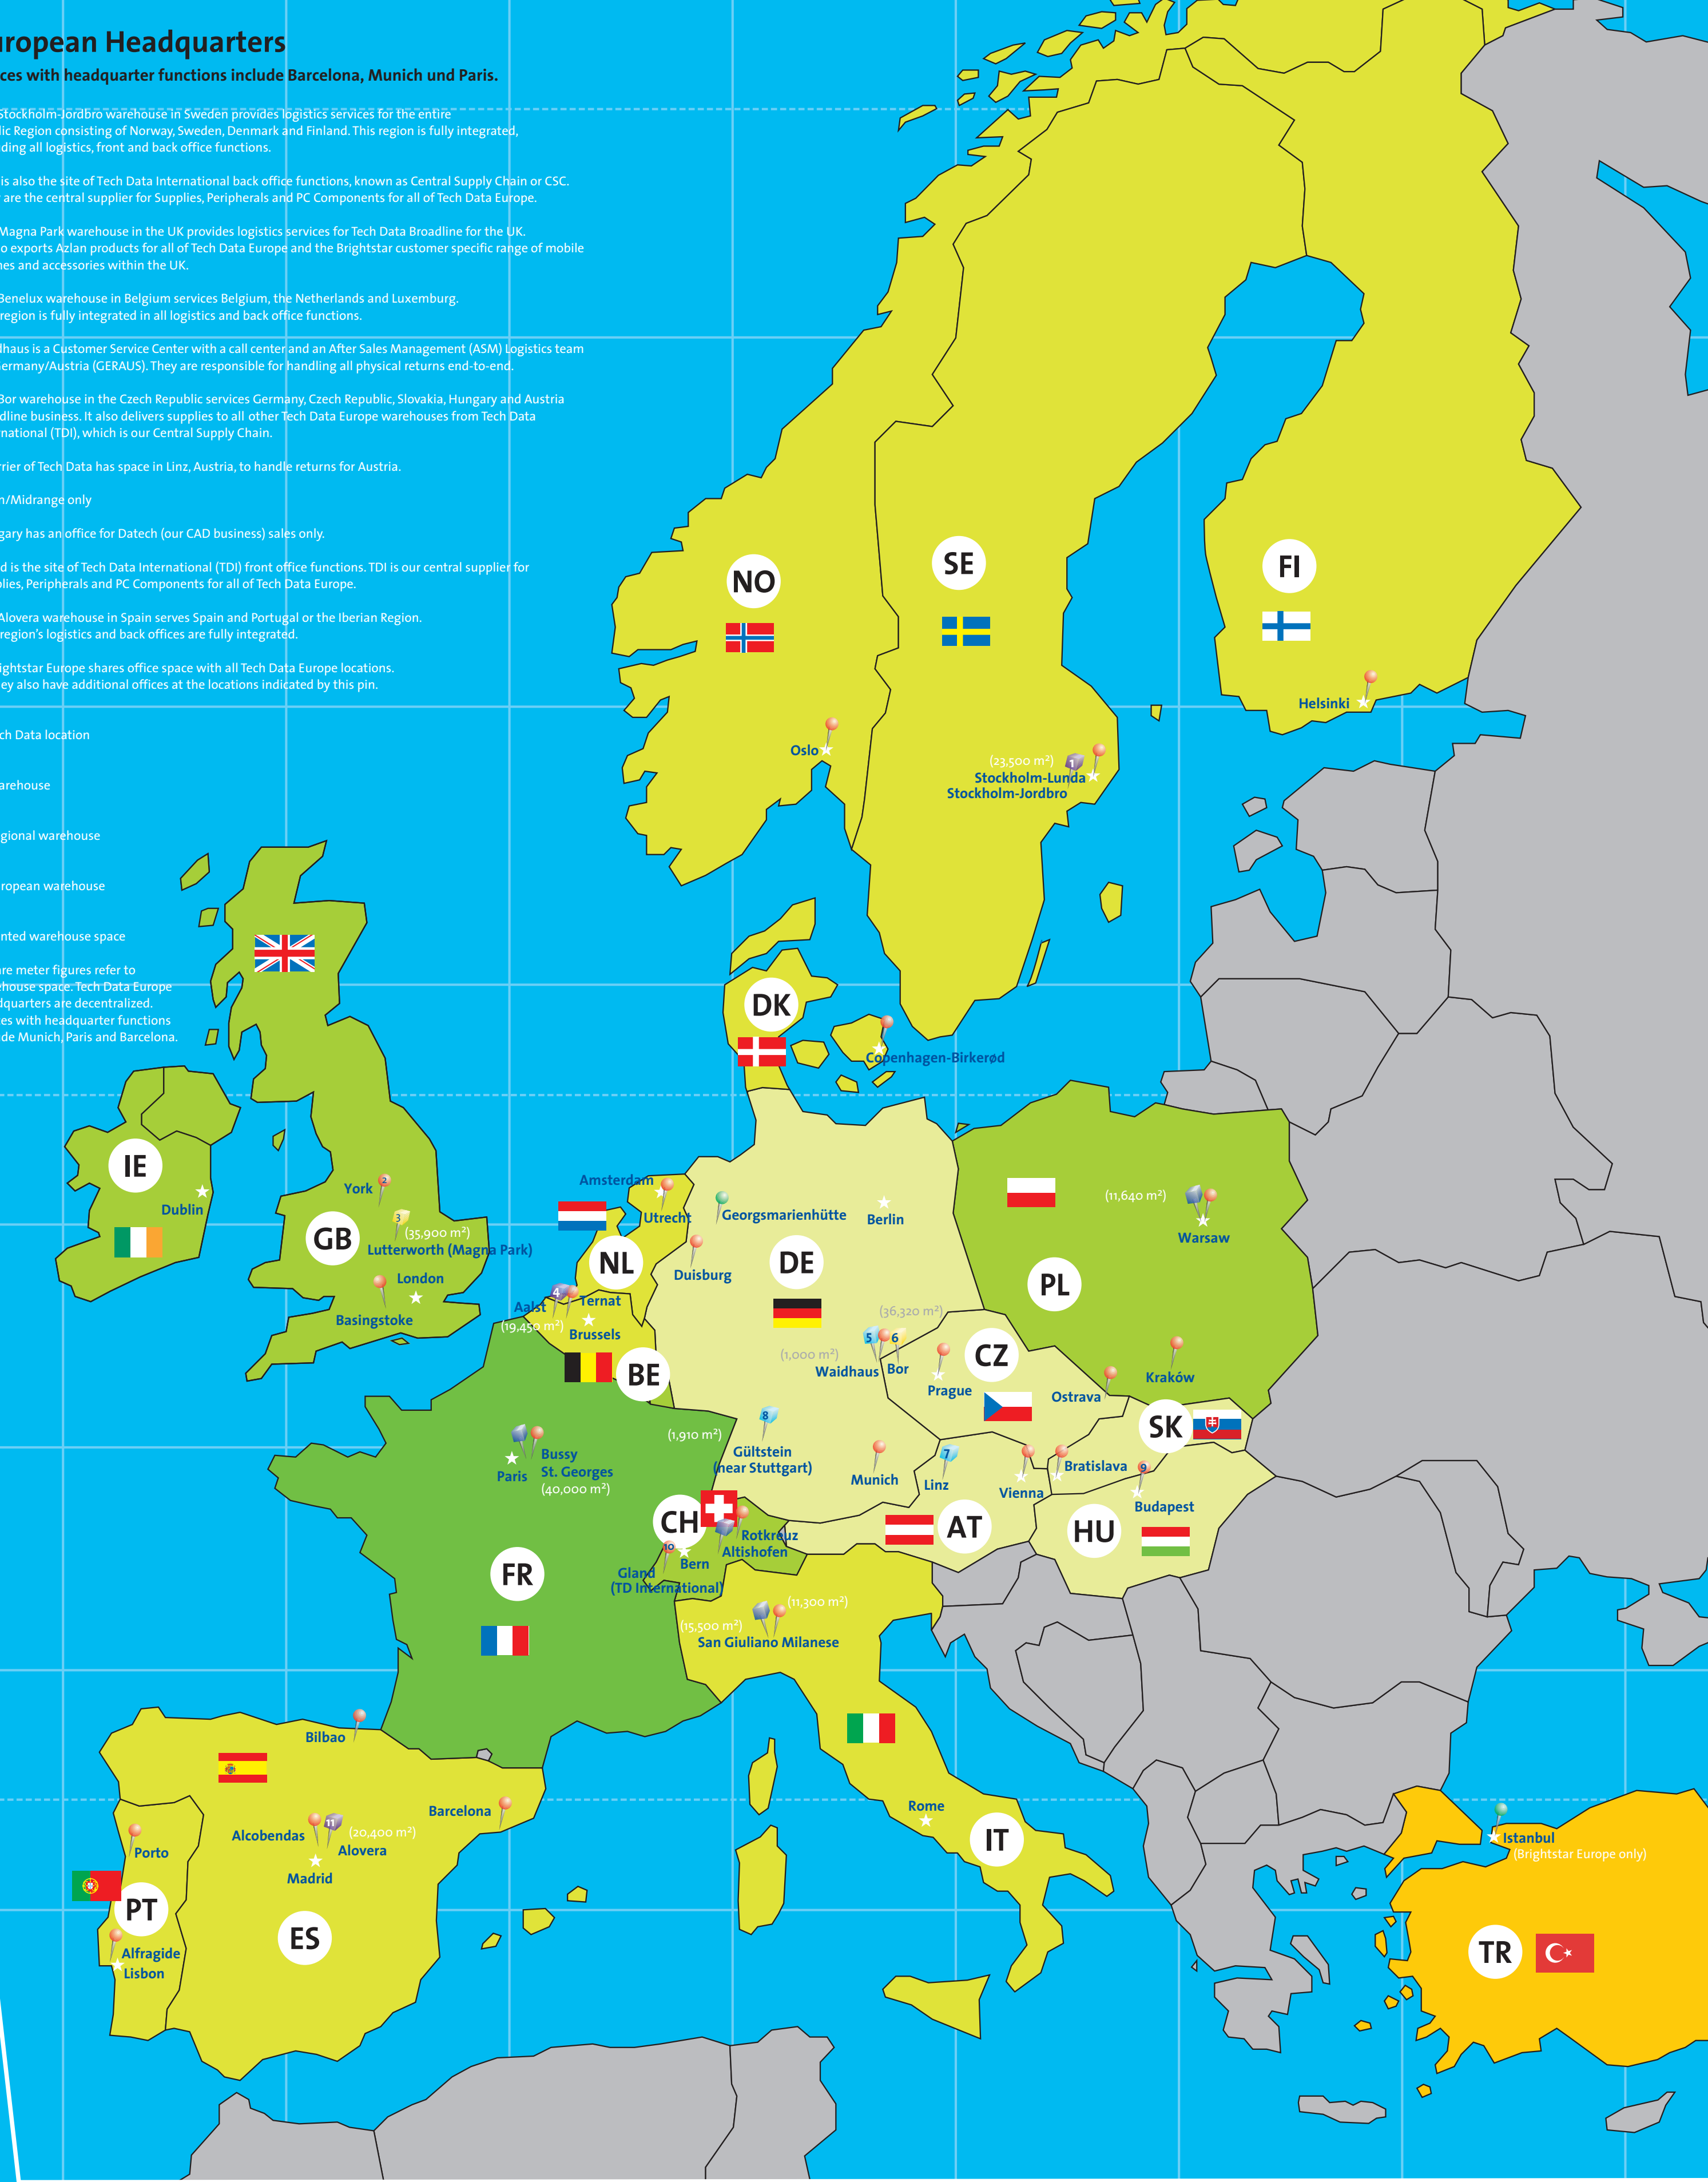

European Headquarters

Offices with headquarter functions include Barcelona, Munich und Paris.

- The Stockholm-Jordbro warehouse in Sweden provides logistics services for the entire Nordic Region consisting of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Finland. This region is fully integrated, including all logistics, front and back office functions.
- York is also the site of Tech Data International back office functions, known as Central Supply Chain or CSC. They are the central supplier for Supplies, Peripherals and PC Components for all of Tech Data Europe.
- The Magna Park warehouse in the UK provides logistics services for Tech Data Broadline for the UK. It also exports to Asian products for all of Tech Data Europe and the Brightstar customer specific range of mobile phones and accessories within the UK.
- The Benelux warehouse in Belgium services Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxemburg. This region is fully integrated in all logistics and back office functions.
- Waidhaus is a Customer Service Center with a call center and an After Sales Management (ASM) logistics team for Germany/Austria (GERAUS). They are responsible for handling all physical returns end-to-end.
- The Bor warehouse in the Czech Republic services Germany, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary and Austria Broadline business. It also delivers supplies to all other Tech Data Europe warehouses from Tech Data International (TDI), which is our Central Supply Chain.
- A carrier of Tech Data has space in Linz, Austria, to handle returns for Austria.
- Azlan/Midrange only
- Hungary has an office for Datech (our CAD business) sales only.
- Gland is the site of Tech Data International (TDI) front office functions. TDI is our central supplier for Supplies, Peripherals and PC Components for all of Tech Data Europe.
- The Alovera warehouse in Spain serves Spain and Portugal or the Iberian Region. This region's logistics and back offices are fully integrated.

- Brightstar Europe shares office space with all Tech Data Europe locations. They also have additional offices at the locations indicated by this pin.
- Tech Data location
- Warehouse
- Regional warehouse
- European warehouse
- Rented warehouse space

Square meter figures refer to warehouse space. Tech Data Europe Headquarters are decentralized. Offices with headquarter functions include Munich, Paris and Barcelona.

Tech Data Worldwide – April 2010

Like this map? Contact Brenda Arnold at getmap@techdata.eu for a copy.